

Adat Shalom Religious School

This form gives permission for your child/ren to be photographed and/or video recorded during the school year, during either in-person or virtual school activities. These images are for school and synagogue use only. Photographs may appear in areas around the synagogue such as bulletin boards and classrooms, in school publications, children's class projects, and in closed-group electronic communications with our parents such as Constant Contact and email. Videos may be recorded of class lessons, projects, plays or other school activities for school and/or synagogue use. No photos or videos of your child/ren will be posted online either on our synagogue website or on social media.

Please indicate the name and grade of your child/ren, and check all boxes that apply:
